Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 680,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness; so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DREYFUS ACQUITTED.

As was stated in the Gazette, Alfred Dreyfus was yesterday completely acquitted of the charges on which he was condemned as a traitor, dismissed from the French army and imprisoned on Devil's Island, and regarding which France has been torn for years by the most bitter political and racial agitation. His vindication is twofold, the Supreme Court first announcing its decision establishing the entire innocence of the accused man, and the ministry later decided to present an urgent bill in Parliament restoring Dreyfus to the army with advanced rank and otherwise the government's most ample reparation.

The decision for the court was a foregone conclusion, as exhaustive inquiries had completely demolished the fabric of the accusation against Dreyfus, showing that the culprit was Major Count Esterhazy. The decision, therefore, annulled the condemnation of the Rennes court-martial and ordered that the acquittal be posted and published throughout France.

The main features of the Supreme Court's decision are:

That three new facts have been established.

1. That the document from General Mercier's secret papers presented at the Rennes court-martial, in which the initial "D" was substituted for "P," was a falsification, establishing the strong presumption of Dreyfus's innocence.

2. That document from the secret papers, in which Dreyfus was alleged to have been shown to have delivered to Germans the plans for the railway mobilization, never reached the war department authorities, and, therefore, Dreyfus could not have secured possession of it.

3. That the Rennes court-martial failed to hear essential testimony calculated to establish the fact that Dreyfus was innocent.

"These facts," the decision of the court says, "without seeking for any further grounds, are of a nature to establish the innocence of the accused, and it is only necessary to examine whether the verdict of the Rennes courtimartial shall be annulled without a retrial or be followed by another trial by a court-martial."

After a lengthy review of the document in the case known as the "bordereau" the decision says it was written by Major Count Esterhazy, and that the accusations connecting Dreyfus with the bordereau rest only on hypothesis and conjecture.

"The accusation against Dreyfus," continues the decision, "whether based on the handwriting or text of the bordereau, was completely unjustified and without motive. Moreover, Dreyfus having a large fortune, one seeks in vain for any reason for his committing such a great crime.

"The court, therefore, holds that as all the accusations against the accused fall to the ground, there is no necessity for a new trial, and consequently, the judgment in condemnation is annulled as unwarranted by the evidence."

In conclusion the court noted Dreyfus' waiving of pecuniary indemnity, and ordered its decision to be transcribed on the record of the Rennes court-martial, and to be inserted in the official journal, and also in five newspapers, to be designated by the Procurator General, and, at the cost of the government, in 50 papers of Paris and the provinces, to be designated by Dreyfus.

SEVEN CHILDREN DROWNED.

Seven girls were drowned yesterday in Cedar river at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, only three blocks from home while wading. The smallest child slipped into a deep hole, and, in trying to rescue her, six others were drowned. Ruth Klersey was the only one of the party to escape. The dead are: Lucille, Hazel, Gladys and Josie Sweeting, Ruth and Cora Coyle and Clara Usher.

The girls ranged in age from 7 to 16 years. The Sweeting children lived with their father near Ellis Park, on the outskirts of Cedar Rapids. Clara Usher was the daughter of Sweeting's housekeeper, and the Coyle children were her nieces, who were on a visit from Sioux City, Ia.

Ruth Klersey, the only survivor, said they were wading when little Lucille Sweeting slipped off a shelf in the river bottom into deep water. Hazel Sweeting rushed after her, slipped into the hole and five other girls rushed, one after the other, into the hole trying vainly to save one another. Ruth Klersey then ran home and gave the alarm.

Four of the bodies were quickly removed from the water, but it was too late to resuscitate them. The other bodies were recovered later, while hundreds of people gathered on the river bank to watch the sad task.

The children had gone to the river with Mrs Usher, who took her baby. The baby tretted and Mrs. Usher start-home with it. The children immediately went wading in the river. Ruth Klersey went to the end of a long sand bar and, seeing that the water was deep at the end of the bar, warned the other children. Lucile Sweeting, however, ran to the end of the bar and, the sand yielding, slipped off into seven feet of water. Her cries brought Hazel Sweeting to her aid. In trying to pull Lucile back on the sand bar she, too, fell into the deep water. Another child went to her assistance and slipped in, and so on, until seven of the eight children were in deep water. Some of them drowned helplessly, while two or three vainly tried to climb back on the sand bar of the deep water.

Ruth Klersey, seeing the fate of her companions, then ran down the road crying to Mrs. Usher, overtaking her when almost home. Mrs. Usher left her baby in the road and ran back to aid the children. She managed to get hold of the hair of two of them and pulled them out of the water but it was too late to save their lives.

Exodus of Jews.

It is estimated that no less than 40,000 Jews, old men, women and children, fled from Warsaw Wednesday. Most of the able-bodied male Jews remained to protect their property. Many of the Jewish shops were closed yesterday, and the houses of the Jews are empty. Intense depression prevails in the Jewish quarter, where the inhabitants have organized a system of self-defense. Armed guards are posted at the gates of all the houses and patrols parade the streets. The authorities have taken precautions against an anti-Jewish outbreak and the police have authorized the newspapers to issue extra editions with the view of allaying the panic.

The proprietors of eight Jewish factories at Bislystok are winding up their affairs with the intention of removing to Palestine and setting up in business there.

Hundreds of Jews left Poltava Wednesday night, fearing an anti-Jewish outbreak yesterday, but the spirit shops were closed and the authorities have promised to prevent any disturbances.

Will Place a Candidate in the Field.

A republican candidate for representative in Congress will oppose the democratic nominee in the election in the Second district of Virginia this fall. The republican executive committee of the district held a meeting in Portsmouth yesterday afternoon and decided it was advisable to place a candidate in the field, although he will not be selected until September 19, when the committee will meet again for the purpose of making a selection. It is said that the republicans will go outside of the district for a candidate, for it is said that Judge Lunsford L. Lewis, of Richmond, at present United State District Attorney for the Eastern Judicial district of Virginia and late candidate for Governor, is the most likely to be selected for the honor, should he accept.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1906.

A DISPATCH from Paris in yesterday's Gazette announced the vindication of Capt. Alfred Dreyfus. Twelve years' battle for the honor of a man, on the one side, with race hatred on the other, has ended with truth triumphant. For the Court of Cassation—the supreme tribunal of France—has not only declared Captain Alfred Dreyfus innocent of high treason, for which he was degraded from the army and put to torture on a convicts' island, but exposed officially to all France the plot that made him a martyr. To add to the discomfiture of the anti-Semitics who still hate Dreyfus, the former captain will not only be restored to a commission in the army, but will be made a major. This will be done by Parliament at the instance of the Cabinet. Had Dreyfus remained in the army he would only have reached the grade of lieutenant colonel of artillery. Former Colonel Picquart, whose defense of Dreyfus caused him to be cashiered, will be made a brigadier general. It was also decided at a meeting of the Council of State last night to propose Dreyfus as a candidate for the Legion of Honor. So Dreyfus will go from a garret, where he has been hiding since his liberation from prison, to a high command. The Supreme Court's action was in full keeping with the dramatic episodes that have marked this stupendous conspiracy that had stirred the world. Twelve years ago Dreyfus was seized in secret as a traitor who had sold French secrets to Germany. Since that time he has been tried twice, Germany threatened war because of the scandal, one officer who helped to forge the documents that convicted Dreyfus has committed suicide, another who had the courage to fight for the truth was dismissed from the army, and Emile Zola, the novelist, excited the republic by his plea for the former captain's vindication.

A FEW weeks ago the judiciary committee of the House of Representatives unanimously opposed the recommendation of President Roosevelt that the regulation of insurance be undertaken by the federal government. The President stated it was an interest "clearly national in character," it had "outgrown the possibility of adequate State supervision" and it was high time that the United States should "follow the policy of other nations" and undertake "adequate national supervision" of the insurance business. This paternalistic idea of the President that the federal government must step in to right all wrongs that it is the special function of the states to attend to, was rejected by the judiciary committee of the Senate, who unanimously reported that in their opinion "the Congress is without authority under the constitution to supervise and regulate" such business. The President is like the man who "convinced against his will, is of the same opinion still," and his opinion of Congress is well known to be something like his opinion of some of the federal judges, which stated in the White House vernacular was strong in adjectives.

WHATEVER may be thought of the propriety or expediency of fusion with the Lincoln republicans on their State ticket, there can be no question of the soundness of the platform adopted by the Pennsylvania democrats at the late State convention. It urges improved election laws; favors "complete and rigid regulation of all corporations engaged in public service;" the "prohibition of transportation by companies engaged in the mining of coal and other minerals, or the manufacture of any commodities in the transportation of which they are engaged as common carriers;" denounces the giving of rebates; favors such change in the food laws "as will insure the protection of public health," and favors a "strict prohibition by civil and criminal enactment of all contributions by corporations to parties, organizations, committees or individuals for political purposes."

THAT tariff war with Germany has broken out again in consequence of the adjournment of Congress without taking any steps to adjust the differences between the two countries. The German government does not ask the United States to reduce its duties although Germany is allowing American goods to come in under her minimum tariff. But she is kicking vigorously because Congress has not revised the customs regulations as promised by the administration, when the concession for the maximum tariff was entered into.

MR. JOHN JACOB ASTOR enjoys the proud distinction of being the proprietor of more automobiles than any other private gentlemen in the land. Registration returns of New York State disclosed the fact that he at one time owned thirty-one cars. Four of these have since been cancelled, leaving a total of twenty-seven machines still registered in his name, the total value being more than $150,000. And there are scores of people in this city who are just dying to own one.

JOSEPH CROW, recently republican postmaster at Omaha and former member of the Nebraska legislature, has been found guilty in the Federal Court on the charge of impeding justice. He was mixed up in the land fraud cases as so many other republicans have been.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 13.

More than a year ago the Receivers' and Shippers' Association of Cincinnati petitioned President Roosevelt to proceed, through the Department of Justice, against certain common carriers and railroad associations which, in the view of the complainants, have discriminated unjustly against Cincinnati to the extent of depriving the Queen City and northeastern and western States of their legitimate share of southern trade. At the Department of Justice the decision has now been reached that the government cannot proceed in the courts, unless the case presented by the complainants shall be materially strengthened. Assistant Attorney General Purdy has had charge of the matter. He has not indefinitely dropped the case, but correspondence is going on between the Department of Justice and Judge Rufus B. Smith, of Cincinnati, representing the petitioners, the purpose of which is to call attention to the weak spot in the petition and the securing of such evidence as will convince General Purdy that he would be justified in taking the matter before the courts. He believes that the responsibility that rests upon him is such that no case should be brought, the successful termination of which does not seem assured in advance. The complaintants in the Cincinnati case against the Southern Railway Company are the Southeastern Mississippi Valley Association, the Southeastern Freight Association, and others who are alleged to have combined in restraint of trade to monopolize commerce and discriminate against the commercial interests of the Northern and Western States in favor the Eastern States in their trade relations with the Southern States. The President is asked to apply for a dissolution of the association and to restrain them and the railroad companies from agreeing and conspiring together to established and maintain certain prejudicial rates.

Unless the old assay office in New York city falls down in the meantime, it is probable that it may be torn down before long and preparations made for the erection of a new building on the same site. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Edwards and Supervising Architect Taylor have just returned from examining the old building and although their report is not yet completed it is expected that they will recommend the renting of temporary quarters during the construction of the new building. It will be the purpose to make the new building conform with the architecture of the custom house which is near by. It is probable that a comparatively low structure, so as not to dwarf the custom-house, will be erected as an administration building with a taller building in the rear for the transaction of the actual assay work.

The habeas corpus proceedings brought before Judge Goff in the case of J. G. Tinsley, an official of the Tennessee Fertilizer Company, and the officials of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, indicted in the United States District Court for the middle district of Tennessee for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, were begun in Richmond yesterday morning. The argument of the attorneys in the case occupied the entire day, the case being continued until this morning. Tinsley, who was placed under technical arrest Wednesday by Judge Edmund Waddill, in the United States District Court, because of his refusal to furnish bond for his appearance before the Tennessee court, came into court in custody of the marshal.

The funeral of the late Naval Constructor J. J. Woodward, United State navy, who died a few days ago while en route to the Pacific coast, will take placed in this city tomorrow, the interment to be in Arlington cemetery.

Captain Walton Goodwin, United States navy, retired, died at his home in this city early this morning from a complication of diseases. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y, in 1845 and was appointed a midshipman in the navy on February 26th, 1863. He attained the rank of ensign in 1868 and in 1897, having passed through the intermediary grades, reached the rank of commander. During the Spanish-American war he commanded the Southery. He was retired with the rank of captain in 1901.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte today awarded one-half of the armor plate contract for the battleships South Carolina and Michigan to the Midvale Steel Company, of Philadelphia. He has given one-fourth of the contract to each of the so-called trust companies; namely the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies at the bid of the Midvale Company of $346 a ton for class A armor. The secretary announced that later he would issue a statement embodying his reasons for not giving the entire contract to the Midvale Company, which was the lowest bidder. The Midvale Company will probably protest.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today instituted its investigation of the relations of the railroad to the grain elevator business, in accordance with the Senate resolution adopted June 25 last. Circular letters were mailed this morning to all the railroads in the United States calling for information that will assist the commission in prosecuting its inquiry.

In the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, papers were received today, signed by Justice Brewer, at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on July 9, granting a writ of error in the case of Mayor Rose, of Kansas City, Kansas. This case involves the right of Mayor Rose to retain his position as mayor to which he was re-elected after the Supreme Court of Kansas had ordered his removal for failure to enforce the prohibition law and declared him ineligible for re-election. The Supreme Court of Kansas held Mayor Rose in contempt and ordered him to pay a fine of $1,000 which, if not paid within twenty days, was to subject him to jail imprisonment. The issue of the writ of error by Justice Brewer acts as a stay of execution and brings the case before the Supreme Court of the United States at the October term.

John Sharp, Williams, of Miss., House minority leader, and Representative Burton, of Ohio, delegates to the International Peace Cougress to be held at London, July 23, will leave Washington tonight and sail tomorrow on the St. Paul from New York for England.

The German government, through Ambassador von Sternburg, today purchased for $150,000 a plot of ground on S street, between 22d and 23d, on which will be erected the most palatial Embassy yet built in Washington. It is almost directly opposite the new French Embassy.

News of the Day.

Because three letters from her husband, William Hyzer, of Pittsburg, did not reach her when they should, Flora Hyzer committed suicide in Jackson, Mich., yesterday.

Alarming news has been received at Tiflis, Transcaucasia, of horrible ravages by Turkish troops across the border in Turkish Armenia. Soldiers who were collecting taxes are said to have indulged in frightful outrages. The population of the city of Van is represented to have been nearly destroyed by the Turkish troops, who pulled down the houses, assaulted women and acted generally like wild beasts.

Regalado, former president of Salvador and the leader of the Salvadorean troops in the present conflict with Guatemala, was killed in battle yesterday. The announcement of his death reached the State Department through a dispatch from United States Minister Merry, at San Salvador. The dispatch stated that Regalado was killed in the last movement of the Salvadorean troops against the Guatemalans, but did not indicate what the result of the battle was.

Abraham H. Hummel, of New York, was suspended from further practice at law pending the appeal against his conviction on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce suit by a decision handed down by the Appellate division of the Supreme Court yesterday. Hummel has been for many years one of the most prominent criminal and divorce lawyers of New York. His firm, Howe & Hummel, has been on one side or the other in most of the important divorce cases of the last 15 or 20 years.

While playfully calling from a second-story window to her mother, sitting on the step below, last night, 6 years-old Millie Redner, of Philadelphia, leaned over too far and fell. Neighbors screamed as the child dropped head foremost, and several ran forward with outstretched hands. But the youngster landed in her mothers's lap. The sudden impact, coming like a lump of lead, nearly knocked Mrs. Redner off the step. She clung to the child and covered her with kisses. The little girl wondered why all the neighbors hugged and kissed her, too. Then she burst into tears. Just to make sure that the child was not injured her mother took her to the Pennsylvania Hospital. She hadn't a scratch.

Killed by His Sister.

George Mitchell, a youth who recently shot and killed Franz Edmund Creffield, a "Holy Roller prophet," and was acquitted of the charge of murder on a plea of insanity, yesterday was shot and killed by his sister, Esther, in the Seattle, Wash., Union station.

Esther Mitchell joined the "Holy Rollers" sect at Corvallis, Ore., and was one of the most ardent of Creffield's followers. When her brother pursued the leader of the "Holy Rollers" to Seattle and shot him in the street he pleaded in justification that Creffield had deluded and wronged his sister.

George Mitchell was acquitted of the charge of murder on Tuesday, and nearly all of the following day he spent in searching for Esther in Seattle lodging-houses. She refused to be comforted after the death of Creffield.

Ester Mitchell had agreed to see her three brothers off to their home in Oregon. The Mitchell brothers, George, Perry and Fred, were sitting with Esther on a bench in the station waiting-room talking, apparently on the best of terms. When the Oregon train was announced George Mitchell rose and started for the door. His sister stepped to his side, and, pointing a revolver at his head fired a shot before anyone else in the room realized what was happening.

Miss Mitchell was arrested shortly after her brother fell. She had refused to have anything to do with her brother since he shot Creffield to avenge Creffield's treatment of Miss Mitchell. Yesterday was the first time the brother and sister had been seen together on apparently good terms.

On Wednesday night Charles Mitchell, the father, and his daughter, Esther, reached a reconciliation, the girl for several days having refused to see even her father. Hearing that he was about to return of his home in Illinois, she consented to see him, all he family being present except George.

A Child Terribly Hurt.

Dorothy, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. John V. Derr, living a short distance north of Middletown, Md., met with a shocking accident a few evenings ago. While in the barn a pitchfork fell from a load of wheat and one of the tines struck the little girl under the right eye and ran diagonally through her face for a distance of five inches, almost coming out on the opposite side. Her father seized the fork and endeavored to pull it from the child's face, but was unable to do so until her grandfather took hold of her head and held it firmly. Dr. E. Q. Beckley was sent for and dressed the wound. The little girl has been particularly unfortunate. Two years ago she was kicked in the face by a horse and was terribly injured. Some time before that she fell 10 feet from a porch and cut her head badly.

The New Depot.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad expects to begin unloading passengers at the Union Station in Washington the first of September, according to a statement to District Engineer Commissioner Biddle yesterday by Mr. E. D. Carrothers, chief engineer of that railroad. However, it will be at least a year before the structure is completed and ready for all roads entering the city. A temporary waiting room will be used by the Baltimore and Ohio for the present. The commissioners regret that Congress during the session just closed failed to pass the District bill providing for additional street car facilities for reaching and leaving the station. Under present conditions passengers arriving at the station will be compelled to walk a considerable distance to a car line.

Virginia News.

Cletus Higgs, a young man of Leaksville, Page county, is in a critical condition as a result of prolonged hiccoughing. Several days ago young Higgs fell from a load of hay, where he had climbed for the purpose of carrying water to some farm hands. He was soon seized with violent hiccoughing, and every effort to arrest the trouble has so far been futile. He is gradually becoming exhausted, and, should the paroxysms continue his death is only a matter of a few days.

J. H. Smythe is dead and J. S. Gormany seriously wounded as the result of a fight near Rural Retreat yesterday. There had been a grude between the men for years. The immediate provocation of yesterday's trouble was caused by Gormany setting his dogs on Smythe's hogs. In retaliation Smythe shot Gormany with a revolver. Gormany's son, who was a witness, went to his home, procured a shotgun, returned to the scene of the difficulty, and emptied the entire load into Smythe's body. Smythe lived a few hours.

Rushing up stairs to kiss her father before he went to sleep yesterday morning, litile Carrie Hundley, the eight-year-old daughter of W. H. Hundley, of Richmond, found her father dead on the floor and the pistol with which he had taken his own life beside him. The frantic cries of the little girl brought her mother to her side. It is believed by friends of the dead man that a temporary aberration caused by ill health was the cause of his ending his own life. He had just come home from the penitentiary where he had been a guard for fourteen years.

Ashby Shifflet, charged with murderous assault, was shot and seriously injured while trying to escape at Stokesville, Page county, yesterday by Special Officer Thomas Paxton. Paxton had arrested Shifflet a short time before and was preparing to conduct the prisoner back to Harrisonburg, when Shifflet made a dash for liberty and was shot, the bullet striking his spine and paralyzing him. During a fight at a lawn party in East Rockingham four weeks ago, Shifflett struck John Gooden in the head with a rock, fracturing his skull. He was arrested and committed for the grand jury. While being brought to Harrisonburg he leaped from a passenger train running at the rate of twenty miles an hour and escaped.

Train Collides with Automobile.

Robert Shaffer, uncle of John S. Phipps, and brother-in-law of Henry Phipps, the Pittsburg steel millionaire, was instantly killed yesterday by a Long Island railroad train, which smashed the automobile in which he and a chefferur were riding at the crosing a half mile east of Sayersville, L. I. Andrew Peters, the chauffeur, was so adly injured that it is believed he will die. The body of Mr. Shaffer, who was about 55 years old, was left in the ditch beside the tracks for several hours until the coroner arrived. Mr. Shaffer had made his home with John S. Phipps in the latter's estate at Westbury, L. I., and has been in charge of the establishment. Taking his nephew's big touring car, Mr. Shaffer and Peters started for a trip on the Babylon road. The car was within three feet of the rails when the last Montauk express, west bound startled Mr. Shaffer and the chauffeur. There was no time to turn back, and Peters threw on the full power of the machine, hoping to spurt the cars over the tracks. His efforts failed. The pilot of the engine caught the body of the automobile and hurled it and its occupants far ahead of it on the tracks and smashed again into the debris in which the two men were caught. Mr. Shaffer's body was tossed 80 feet into the muddy and marshy ditch bordering the tracks. Peters, who was jammed between the bent steering wheel and the shattered seat, was thrown with the wreck to the other side of the track. The train was backed up to the scene of the wreck but Mr. Shaffer was dead.

Affairs in Russia.

Finance Minister Kokovsoff has given authority for the statement that the resignation of the entire Russian Cabinet is in the hands of the Emperor.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, in command of the Guard Corps and the troops in the military district of St. Peteraburg, has tendered his resignation to the Emperor on account of the Preobrajensky affair, but the Emperor declined to accept it.

Contrary to expectations, no case of disorder in St. Petersburg had been reported up to a late hour last night. The streets throughout the day were heaviiy guarded with patrols and the workmen's quarters were crowded with troops. Several meetings were held in the suburbs, but they were of a peaceful character.

From the provinces the news is less satisfactory. Everywhere collisions with the police are reported. No further news has been received from Poltava, but the whole Pale is terrorized by rumors of anti-Jewish outbreaks.

J. G. P. Stokes a Socialist.

J. G. Phelps Stokes, the young millionaire, who for several years has devoted himself to work in the slums of New York, has formally announced that he will cast his lot with the socialist party.

In a letter he declares that while he regards capital as necessary at present to the public welfare, he considers it so harmful when used selfishly that its complete control by the people, collectively, is essential. He adds:

"I have long believed in the philosophy of socialism. Hitherto I have refrained from co-operating with the socialist party, owing to the intense bitterness and ill will manifested by many socialists toward nearly all persons who approve and support the capitalist system, and owing to what seemed to me gross materialism, economic and otherwise, of very many socialists. I failed to see that the bitterness and ill will referred to were in no way chargeable to the socialist philosophy, but were the result of monopoly, extortion and oppression, habitually practiced by prominent beneficiaries of the capitalist system."

DIED.

Thursday, July 12, 1906, Mrs. BERTHA LOWENBACH, widow of Moritz Lownbach. The remains will be taken to Baltimore Sunday morning for interment. Funeral private Please omit flowers.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Dreyfus Case.

Paris, July 13.—The government this morning presented to the Chamber of Deputies the measures providing for the promotion of Captain Dreyfus, whose innocence of the charge of selling French military secrets to Germany was established by the decision of the Court of Cassation yesterday, and of Colonel Picquart, the staunch supporter of Dreyfus, who was expelled from the army because of his defense of the condemned official. Dreyfus, under the plan of the government, will be promoted to major, and Colonel Picquart will be made a brigadier general. A further honor proposed for Dreyfus is his election to the Legion of Honor. The measure providing for the rehabilitation of the two officers and their promotion were referred to the army committee. It is the plan of the government to have them voted upon this afternoon.

The army commission to which the Dreyfus and Picquart promotion measures were referred, unanimously approved them. The commission consists of members of parliament appointed to consider all questions relating to the army.

When the bill reinstating Dreyfus to his former standing in the army and offering him promotion came before the chamber, it passed by a vote of 473, to to 42. No one opposed the measure on the floor. The bill in favor of Colonel Picquart, however, met with opposition, several orators representing the right speaking against it.

An interpellation offered by Deputy Pressenz in which he attacked Generals Mercier, Boisderfer and Gonze and Colonels Lauth, Roilin and Cuignet, for the stand they took against Dreyfus, stirred up a hot fight and in the excitement M. Sarrault a socialist deputy, struck Deputy Pugliesi-Conte, a nationalist. This caused the President to adjourn the sitting.

Later the session was resumed and the government requested that the chamber should give it a vote of confidence. On the ballot, the government secured a majority of over 200.

After the trouble in the chamber, in which two of the Deputies came to blows, the galleries were cleared both of spectators and representatives of the press. The rest of the proceedings were held in private.

Thaw's Trial.

New York, July 13.—Harry Thaw will be tried for the murder of Stanford White on October 1 in the Court of General Sessions. Subpoenas have been issued by the District Attorney's office calling for the attendance of the State's witnesses on that date. Officials of the District Attorney's office say they have sufficient evidence to convict Thaw of murder in the first degree. The District Attorney will endeavor to show that Thaw planned the crime long before that fatal night on the Madison Square roof garden. Thaw was jealous of White's attentions and relations to Miss Nesbit before she had finally married him and out of revenge and pique he shot and killed the architect, according to the State's view of the actuating motive.

Spoiled as a child, and allowed to have his own way in everything which made it possible to go to any ends with his vast fortune to satisfy any desire, Harry Thaw found in Standford White, one who balked him on more than one occasion and whose influence at times was great enough to control the direction of the life of Miss Nesbit, with whom Thaw was madly infatuated. Thaw never could forgive White for the influence he swayed over Miss Nesbit, and though White never came into the life of Evelyn Nesbit after her marriage the young man nurtured a bitter jealousy against the architect, which several officials of the District Attorney's think, was cultivated by Mrs. Thaw.

It is related among the numerous stories floating around about the case that the defense will endeavor to show that Harry Thaw hired detectives to follow White on the belief that White had employed a man to "do" him up. Wm. Sturgis will be a witness for the defence. Before he left for Hartford Sturgis made a long statement to Thaw's counsel. That maintains a very cheerful spirit in the Tombs in spite of the wide difference in the mode of living to which he has been accustomed.

Attempted to See the President.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 13.—Miss "Esac" or Elizabeth Case, reversed, who made a strenuous attempt yesterday afternoon to call upon President and Mrs. Roosevelt, at Sagamore Hill, but was prevented by the secret service guards, is still in Oyster Bay, and is evidently hopeful of effecting her purpose, for this morning she moved to the Bixby cottage on South street. According to the officials at the executive office, Miss Case was arrested in Washington last winter while creating a scene at the Treasury Department. She had called first at the White House, and failing to secure an interview with the President had proceeded to Secretary Shaw's office. She was detained at the government hospital for the insane in Washington until her relatives, near Boston, took her away. Miss Case, according to the authorities here, is demented over religion. It is denied here that she is a near relative of Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the Vice President.

Auto Race.

Auburn, N. Y., July 13.—The Glidden automobile tourists were sent away before nine o'clock, this morning on their second days run to Utica. The weather is superb and all were in fine spirits, as they were checked off on their eastward flight. Dr. Bennett, of this city, piloted the first car out. The start was without incident. The tourists were entertained last night by the local automobile club, taking a trolley ride to Owasco Lake and attending summer opera there.

Utica, N. Y., July 13.—The contestants in the auto tour for the Glidden trophy, who left Auburn at nine o'clock this morning began straggling into this city after 11 o'clock, and by noon over forty cars had registered at the local checking station. The run from Auburn to Utica was without noteworthy incident.

County Assessor Waylaid.

I. W. Coulter, of Leslie S. D., Assessor of Stanley County, relates the following: "I was waylaid by a complication of throat and lung troubles, bronchitis, asthma and a terrible cough, which had affected me for years, when I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Relief came almost immediately, and in a short time a permanent cure resulted. No other medicine compares with it as a sure and quick cure for coughs and colds. It cures after all other remedies have failed. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Kinnan Murder.

New York, July 13.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Alice Kinnan, who was mysteriously murdered on the porch of the old Stenton mansion, 189th street and Washington avenue, in the Bronx, on June 8 last, will, in all probability, be concluded today, when it is expected that a man suspected from the beginning will be arrested. Mrs. Shippo, the Italian woman who occupied the basement of the mansion, has given damaging testimony. She said that a few days after the murder Mrs. Marie Perone, of 119th street and avenue A, told her that a man at that address wanted to see her about the murder. She went there and met a man who said that he was Michael Scudo. This man, she said, professed to be acting for a lawyer and offered to give her money if she would go to Italy so as not to be called as a witness. Burton W. Gibson, who has figured in the case as the former legal adviser of both Mrs. Kinnan and Mrs. Stenton, will be called to the stand during today's session of the inquest. Gibson, it is understood, will endeavor to establish his whereabouts on the night of the murder. Several witnesses have been subpoenaed who are expected to testify on this point. From the first the lawyer has claimed he was not near the Stenton mansion on the night that Mrs. Kinnan met her death, and he will endeavor to prove his claim today.

Anti-American Organization.

New Orleans, July 13.—In many of the remote towns in Mexico posters have been put up at the instigation of a powerful secret society of Mexican laborers warning all Americans to leave the country before September 4. This information was brought here last night by F. A. Sturdevant, a representative of the Mexican Central Railroad. He says that the recent outbreak near the border in which a number of Americans were killed by Mexican miners, was only the beginning of trouble which threatens to extend throughout Mexico and result in the death of many Americans in the outlying provinces.

According to Sturdevant this society has been forming for six months or more and now seems to be widespread. Skilled leaders, antagonistic to the policy of President Diaz in his friendliness to American interests, have appealed to the racial prejudice of the lowest order of laborers, representing to them that the only way in which they can save their country from absorption by the United States is to organize and drive all Americans from the country.

Candidate for the Senate.

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—George D. Miekeljohn, ex-member of Congress from Nebraska, and Assistant Secretary of War under President McKinley, announced yesterday his candidacy for the republican nomination for United States Senator for Nebraska, the choice to be made at the coming State convention. Mr. Meiklejohn's candidacy adds interest to an already heated Senatorial campaign, in which the principal participants have been Edward Rosewater, of Omaha, and Norris Brown, attorney-general of the State. The present contest is for the nomination to succeed Senator Millard, who has not entered into the fight.

Will Send Delegates to Conference.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—The Douma today decided to send six deputies to attend the coming interparliamentary peace conference which will be held in London, beginning July 23. The question of universal peace was freely discussed at great length in the debate on a motion declaring that the Douma is the only parliament in the world which is united in its desire to stop war. The delegates to the interparliamentary peace conference at London were instructed to inform the conference that the Douma is willing to assume the leadership of the new international peace movement.

Dined with War Minister.

London, July 13.—William J. Bryan today dined with War Minister Haldane. The two statesmen then discussed more completely the project advanced by Mr. Haldane in the House of Commons yesterday for the reduction of armaments in outlining the plans of the British government for army reorganization. This is a subject in which Mr. Bryan has long been interested, and as he favors the reduction of armies, he is pleased at the stand which the English government has taken in the matter.

Murderer Hanged.

Towson, Md., July 13.—Ernest Lyles, colored, was hanged here at 11:04 this morning for the murder of his sweetheart, Ardenia Derricks, whose neck he nearly severed with a razor last May in Baltimore county. Lyles made the following confession: "I am guilty of murder, and feel sorry for what I have done. I hope to be forgiven. I deserve to be hanged, and am willing to pay the penalty of my crime." Lyles was married.

Painters and Decorators.

Asbury Park, N. J., July 13.—The master painters and decorators convention adjourned at noon, after a most successful and important series of meetings. This morning the question of organizing master painters on the entire state was discussed and probably taken up by the executive committee.

Investigating Ice Conspiracy.

Baltimore, July 13.—The grand jury, which is investigating an alleged ice trust conspiracy to raise prices here, today summoned Howard Hammond, president of the Sumwalt Company, one of the largest dealers in this city. The investigation is proceeding very slowly.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 13, 11 a. m.—The weakness that was shown in the stock market at the opening and in the early trading continued the chief feature of the market during the greater part of the first hour. Prices declined from one to two points in nearly all the active issues, with American Locomotive under the greatest pressure. Houses which have been bearish in their market opinions, today said they believed the decline had gone far enough, and that they looked for a material rally. The room traders acted on the theory that the market had been oversold and for the time have switched around to the bull side.

Had Bullet in His Heart.

Henderson, Ky., July 13.—Nathaniel Jackson, a negro, 23 years old, who lived eight weeks with a bullet in his heart, died yesterday at the City Hospital. Physician H. W. Edwards, who held a post mortem, took a 32-caliber bullet from the apex of the heart, just under the skin, the bullet having gone almost through that organ. Jackson was shot at a negro dance on May 18 by Jesse Sutton, another negro. Physicians consider it a most remarkable fact that the negro survived as long as he did. The place where the bullet entered the heart was entirely healed.

The Market.

Georgetown, July 13.—Wheat 70@78.

Duel.

Paris, July 13.—A duel was fought today between Paul Cassagnac, jr., and Lieutenant Andre, son of General Andre, former Minister of War, because of a quarrel which arose over a reflection upon Paul Cassagnac, sr., contained in the memoirs of General Andre. Count Cassagnac asked Lieutenant Andre if he accepted the responsibility for his father's words and when he was assured that the Lieutenant would do so, he promptly challenged him to a duel. Lieutenant Andre was wounded in the encounter which took place today.

The outcome of the duel, in which blood was actually shed, was something unusual in French duels. Both combatants, however, entered the contest fiercely, evidently determined to do all possible damage. The fight terminated when Andre received a wound in the arm. Cassagnac's sword was broken during the encounter. The meeting took place on private grounds at Neuilly. Both Andre and Cassagnac come of warlike families. Paul Cassagnac in his day was one of the most notorious duellists in France. His son challenging Lieutenant Andre was only following in the footsteps of his father. General Andre was minister of war from May, 1900, until November, 1904. He was a participant in a disgraceful scene in the Chamber of Deputies during which he was struck in the face by a nationalist deputy, Gabriel Syveton. A duel grew out of the affair, Captain Gall meeting Syveton for General Andre, who was prevented from fighting in his own behalf owing to his official position. Two shots were fired, but without effect.

Train Wrecked.

Chicago, July 13.—The Monon passenger train No 25, which left Cincinnati at 11:30 o'clock last night, and was due in Chicago at 7:45 a. m., was wrecked early this morning between Fair Oaks and Rose Lawn, Ind., supposedly by spreading rails. The company's report says but one passenger was slightly injured. The train was travelling at a lively speed when the engine left the rails and turned over on one side. The express car turned turtle while the combination baggage, day coach, and two sleepers, left the rails, but did not lose their balance. The track was torn up for 150 feet.

Lightning Undresses Girls.

Shamokin, Pa., July 13.—Jane and Nellie Bodnar, girls, while picking potato bugs from plants on their father's farm in Mahanoy on Tuesday, were struck by lightning which tore away most of their clothing and injured them so badly that they will probably die. Their father found them senseless in a field shortly after a severe thunder storm. Their backs were burst open by the bolt, and they were black-and-blue from neck to feet.

Investigation Continued.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 13.—Jefferson Justice, Auditor of the Pennsylvania Railroad, this morning resumed his testimony before the federal grand jury in this city which is investigating alleged violations of the interstate commerce law on the part of the Pennsylvania and the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Justice will be in the grand jury room all day and possibly next week.

Accident to a Steamer.

Dover, Eng., July 13.—The Hamburg American line flier Deutschland, Captain Kampff commanding, when leaving here today on her voyage to New York, fouled the Prince of Wales pier, twisting her stem. The steamer at once anchored while an investigation was made of the damage caused by the accident.

U. S. Senator Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, is suffering from a broken collar bone. The Senator was thrown from a horse near San Mateo, Cal., and had a narrow escape from death.

Cost of Electric Lights.

"It may be interesting to the public here," said City Attorney R. Gray Williams of Winchester, "to note the bids made to the Alexandria Common Council a day or two ago for the lighting of the streets of that city with arc lamps.

"You know," continued Mr. Williams, "Winchester paid seventy dollars per year per arc lamp for some months prior to the acceptance of the bid of the Winchester and Washington City Railway Company to light the streets of the city at the rate of fifty dollars per arc lamp per year. Since the first day of June this year the city has been paying the fifty-dollar rate and no more can be charged for ten years to come. This is a rate which representatives of the old Electric Light Company here appeared to demonstrate as impossible and unprofitable to plants whose motive power is steam. In almost every city the rate is seventy dollars or more, where steam power is used. In Alexandria the lowest bid reported was at the rate of seventy dollars for each lamp per annum for eight-five lamps during the first ten years of the contract, sixty-five dollars during the second ten years and sixty dollars during the third ten years. Even this offer was made in conjunction with a low proposition for the franchise and existing plant in Alexandria of five thousand dollars.

"The city here now gets its lamps for about sixteen hundred dollars per year less than it did immediately prior to June. From a comparison with the rates paid in other cities and the bids opened by the Alexandria Common Council it looks like the council here has made a most advantageous contract for lightning the street for the next ten years." [Winchester Star.

Alexandria Day.

A meeting of citizens and Luna Park officials was held in the Mayor's office this morning. The object was to formulate plans for what will be known as Alexandria day at the park (Monday, July 30).

Mayor Paff was chosen president, Mr. Julian Y. Williams secretary and Mr. Julian T. Burke treasurer.

It is purposed to devote ten per cent. of the gross receipts—entrance fees and collections from the various amusement features—to the Alexandria Hospital.

It was stated that the electric railway company would make a reduction of five cents on round-trip tickets to the park on that day. Messrs. J. M. Hill and A. D. Brockett were appointed a committee to confer with the railway officials. It is proposed to have a sham battle between the Alexandria Light Infantry and Osceola Tribe of Red Men, of this city, on the occasion, and Captain P. J. Murphy was appointed to make the arrangements.

Mr. E. E. Downham was selected to take charge of the firemen's feature of the day.

A Remarkable Case.

As was stated in the Gazette James Smith, colored, 19 years old, was pulled out of the Potomac river Wednesday night after he had been under water for 20 minutes and who was several times thought to be dead. He will be able to leave the Emergency Hospital in Washington in a day or two. Smith started for Notley Hall Wednesday evening, but was caught in a squall and his boat overturned. He was a considerable distance from shore, and when help arrived he had gone under. After a search of 20 minutes his body was recovered, but, efforts to resuscitate him were unsuccessful. He was placed on board a steamer and a record run was made for the Seventh street wharf in Washington. Arriving there, an ambulance was called and he was hurried to the hospital. Dr. Jones, of the hospital staff, worked over him for more than a hour, and several times he was thought to be dead, but each time a spark of life manifested itself.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Bertha Lowenbach died suddenly at the Hotel Appich in this city, shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The deceased was a native of Baltimore. She was sixty-three years of age, and is survived by five children—Miss Edna Lowenbach, who was at the hotel with her mother at the time; Mrs. Sig Steiner, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Lillie Winternitz, of Baltimore; Joseph F. Lowenbach, of Culpeper, and Charles R. Lowenbach, of this city. Her death was due to heart disease. Mrs. Lowenbach had been in excellent health until within a few weeks, when she was compelled to consult a physician for varicose veins.

Steel Passenger Car.

The Southern Railway has just put into service what is said to be the the first steel passenger car for general use on any road. It was constructed in Pittsburg, where two other cars of similar nature are being built. The car is 74 feet 6 inches long over all, and weighs 110,000 pounds. There was no wood in its construction except for the interior decorations, and that wood was made fireproof. It is said that the car could not be telescoped in a coltision, neither could the ends be smashed in, and, furthermore, it is incombustible.

To be Wrecked.

It is stated that Mr. Heath of Washington, the owner of the old excursion steamer Sam'l J. Pentz, has determined to make no further attempt to bring the vessel to the capital city, but will have her wrecked where she lies half sunken on Wagner's Point in Baltimore harbor. The machinery of the old boat will be lifted out by means of a big derrick and placed on cars to be taken back to Baltimore, and the wood work will be torn to pieces for the metal in it.

Mr Hume's Condition Serious.

The condition of Mr. Frank Hume, who has been critically ill at his home, 1235 Massachusetts avenue northwest, Washington, for several weeks, is still unimproved, and it is feared that his death is near. It was thought last night that he was sinking, and little hope was held out for his recovery.

Police Court.

[Justice W. A. Moore presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Welsh, arrested by Officer Arrington charged with assaulting Mary Gallahan, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Lucy Holmes, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with assaulting Clara Bose, was dismissed.

Wilson Reed, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles and Garvey for disorderly conduct, was fined $5. Mary Johnson, Wm. McCoy, Llewellyn Lane and Lina Stewart, all colored, arrested by the same officers charged with a similar offense, were dismissed.

Nin Jones, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

Randolph Keene, arrested by Officer Beach for permitting a vicious dog to run at large, was fined $5.

Joint Committee Meeting.

A meeting of the joint committees on finance, light and general laws was held last night in the chamber of the Common Council for the purpose of considering the bids for the electric light franchise submitted last Tuesday night. A commitee of three was appointed to employ an electrical engineer with whom the committees can confer. The subcommittee met this morning and agreed to communicate with Mr. Q. Hazelton, of New York, and request him to confer with the committees.

Runaway.

There was an exciting runaway on Duke street this morning. Two horses attached to a country wagon became frightened at Henry street and started east on Duke street at a rapid gait. The animals ran as far as St. Asaph street where the wagon collided with a telegraph pole, which threw the horses off their feet and on their sides. A youth who was in charge of the team jumped from the wagon when the horses took fright and escaped injury.

Fish Returned.

On Tuesday night four half barrels of fish were stolen from the warehouse of the Potomac Fish Company at Fishtown. One of the members of the firm was convinced that certain well-known parties committed the theft, and he sought the suspects and told them if the plunder was not returned he would have them arrested. Last night the fish were replaced in the warehouse.

Luna Park.

Luna Park was crowded again last night. The printers of Washington with numbers of their friends, including many from this city, visited the resort where they remained until a late hour in the enjoyment of the various features of the park.

Mr. Bryan's Views.

Mr. William J. Bryan, having had the opportunity of reading American newspapers, consented yesterday in London to discuss some of the questions which have been raised since he has again become prominent as a presidential possibility. He said among other things. "I notice that I am now described as a conservative, and in order that there may be no misunderstanding on the subject, permit me to say that in one sense I always have been a conservative. If, however, by the word conservative they mean that I have changed my position on any public question or moderated my opposition to corporate aggrandizement they have a surprise waiting for them. I am more radical than I was in 1895, and have nothing to withdraw on economical questions which have been under discussion. I believe in bimetallism, and I believe that the restoration of silver would bring still further prosperity, besides restoring par in exchange between gold and silver using countries; but I recognize as do all other bimetallists whom I have met abroad, that the unexpected and unprecedented increase in gold production has for the present removed the silver question as an issue."

Defaulter for $200,000.

Thomas W. Alexander, member of the cotton brokerage firm of Alexander & Alexander, in Augusta, Ga., is a defaulter for about $200,000 and a fugitive. Alexander left Augusta Tuesday, leaving a letter to his partner stating that he had been using the firm's funds to speculate in cotton, that the market had gone against him, and that he was leaving Augusta, and would never return alive. He also left a letter for his wife.

Investigation showed that Alexander had used not only all resources of his firm, but that he had secured from Augusta banks by the improper use of cotton warehouse receipts about $150,000.

The Georgia Railroad Bank sustains a loss of $115,000, which was marked off its books yesterday, and charged to the surplus and undivided profits accounts. The National Bank of Augusta loses $7,000 and the National Exchange Bank $2,000. The available assets of the firm amount to about $80,000, while the personal liabilities of T. W. Alexander, in addition to the amount of loans, is about $26,000.

In his letters, T. W. Alexander stated that he alone is responsible; that his brother knew nothing of the financial end of the business, and had nothing to do with it.

In addition to money received from the banks, Alexander touched his friends for sums ranging from $1,000 up to $5,000.

Alexander's whereabouts are unknown but he is thought to be in New York, en route to Europe.

Tom Alexander, the defaulter, was the life of the exclusive set in Augusta, and spent his money like water. It is doubtful if Alexander is prosecuted, as wealthy relatives will probably make good the losses.

New Testament in Parochial Schools.

Important action was taken at the convention of the National Catholic Educational Association in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday, when the prelates and priests present declared by vote in favor of a wider and more extensive reading of the scriptures in the parochial schools.

This was, in fact, a declaration in favor of the reading of the New Testament in those schools. In that respect it marks a radical departure from established policy.

A message from the Pope, election of officers and the discussion of the important papers made the session of the last day a very interesting and busy one. The Pope's cablegram was a reply to the message of greeting sent him at the opening of the meeting. It read:

"The Holy Father returns thanks for the sentiments of filial devotion manifested toward him by the educational association and most lovingly imparts his blessing."

Golf Championship.

Englewood, N. J., July 13.—The third round of match play began this morning in the annual amateur golf championship of the United States. The temperature was higher than on any of previous days of the contest. A great crowd was out. Eight men were out, the pairing being, Hugo Johnson, Boston, versus Ellis Knowles, New York; Gilman Tiffany, New York, versus George S. Lyon, Toronto; W. T. West, Philadelphia, versus E. M. Byers, Pittsburg; Walter J. Travis, versus Jerome D. Travers, New York.

Gautemala and Salvador.

Washington, D. C., July 13.—The United States is using its good offices to prevent an actual declaration of war between Gautemala and Salvador. Such is the serious nature of the dispatches received by the State Department today from the scene of the trouble that acting Secretary of State Bacon this morning cabled United States Minister Merry at San Salvador and United States Minister Combs at Gautemala City immediately to use their influence with the respective governments to prevent a continuance of the hostilities now in progress. A telegram was also sent to United States Ambassador Thompson at Mexico City formally requesting the co-operation of the Mexican government in the efforts of the United States to secure peace.

A cablegram was received at the department this morning from Minister Merry, in which he says that severe fighting is now in progress between the forces of the two countries on the Salvador and Honduran borders of Guatemala.

Although Minister Merry does not so report, it is believed at the State Department that the victorious Guatemalan army is in pursuit of the Salvadorean forces which have evidently been divided and have entered into Honduras and Salvador.

The Guatemalan minister to this country Senor Munoz, was at the State Department this morning and had a long conference with Mr. Bacon. He had received the following cablegram dates yesterday from the Guartemala Minister of foreign affairs Barrias:

"Complete triumph of the Guatemalan army over the Salvadorean invading forces. The Salvadorean General-in-Chief Thomas Regalado killed yesterday at El Jicaro." The Navy Department, acting on the request of the State Department has dispatched the gunboat Marblehead from Panama to La Libertad on the Salvadorean coast.

The Hartje Divorce Case.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—The Hartje divorce trial was resumed at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Handwriting expert Marshall D. Ewall, of Chicago, was recalled to the stand this morning and the cross examination by attorneys for the libellant was resumed. Mr. Ewall was unshaken in his assertions and positiveness that the letters had been written by others than the respondent.

The details of the sensational arrest made Wednesday evening in connection with the Hartje divorce trial were made known today. The arrest was made on a charge of forgery, it being claimed that the prisoner tried to sell Attorney John Marron five letters alleged to have been written by coachman Thomas Madine to Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje. The man under arrest is B. F. McElroy, alias Elmer Johnson. It is alleged that some days ago McElroy met a man named J. H. Harrison, near the postoffice. The latter is said to have told McElroy that he had five letters for which Mr. Marron would pay $25. McElroy was told to take the letters to Mr. Marron's office and that he would get $10 of the $25.

All five of the letters were purported to have been written by Madine to Mrs. Hartje. Mr. Marron at once notified the police of the offer of the five letters, and McElroy was promptly arrested. Charges of forgery and conspiracy were made by Chief of Detectives Eagan. McElroy will be given a hearing at 4:30 o'clock in Magistrate Kirby's office. Harrison has not been arrested.

Red Flags in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—After several months of comparative quiet, there was a demonstration of workingmen in the Russian capital today. Early this morning a crowd consisting of several hundred workingmen and their sympathizers met in the Newsky Prospect, and at five o'clock started to march toward the Winter Palace, carrying red flags and singing revolutionary songs. The police shortly after the line began to move ordered the marchers to disperse. The workingmen refused to obey the orders, however, and the police then charged the crowd. When order had been restored, it was found that two workingmen had been killed, and many had been injured. The remainder of the marchers scattered in all directions.

Murderous Assault.

New York, July 13.—A woman who gave her name as Elizabeth Hailey, was found in a wood near Pelham today, with her throat badly gashed. She was removed to the Fordham hospital where she said that she had been assaulted by a man named John Daffy, who afterwards cut her throat.

Supposed to Have Jumped Overboard.

Baltimore, July 13.—Crazed by an incurable attack of consumption, Mary C. Burke, 47 years old, recently of Norfolk, Va., is supposed to have leaped overboard from the Bay Line steamer Virginia, en route from Norfolk into the Chesapeake Bay last night.

A cloudburst and landslide on July 10 at Ocampo (Jesus Maria), Chihauhau, Mexico, almost completely destroyed the city, and killed seven or more persons. Many others were injured, and it is expected some of them will die. All the killed and injured are Mexicans.

R. & G. Corsets at 69c a Pair.

It is a gathering of 300 pairs of the famous R. & G. Corsets, some worth as much as $3.50. The manufacturer of this brand is so particular about his output that the least imperfection found after the corset is finished—that particular corset is laid aside, together with others of a like nature, until several hundred have accumulated. They are then sold to the trade at a fraction of their worth. For this reason we offer Corsets worth as much as $3.50 a pair at 69c.

They are the very latest styles and one of the best makes of Corsets in this country. The defects are so slight that in most instances it would take an expert to detect them. Here are descriptions:

Made of batiste and coutil; medium and high bust; short, medium, and dip hip, with two sets of supporters. Just think of it! All sizes, from 18 to 36. Come and see them on bargain table, first floor.

A Fire In Rome.

A lawyer who visited Rome tells how the fire department grappled with a blaze in the Eternal City. He says:
"The fire was in what we would call a grocery store. It seemed a long time before the fire department responded, but after awhile I saw a hose wagon dash around the corner, with a number of firemen standing on the running boards on each side. The wagon stopped at a hydrant, and each fireman jumped from the wagon with a little roll of hose. The first man coupled his to the hydrant, and then each man coupled his section to the preceding section. Finally they had water on the fire, and after another long period a man with a plumed hat drove up in a victoria. He was the chief. The captain of the company and the chief saluted with much ceremony, then shook hands and then held a long and dignified conversation. Finally, I suppose, the captain told the chief the grocery was on fire, and the chief acknowledged it was and complimented him on his perspicuity. Oh, yes, they finally put the fire out, and Rome still stands!"

Difficult Haymaking.

One of the most curious sights that one notices in the agricultural parts of Norway is the peculiar way of drying out the hay. On account of the extreme dampness the grass rots if left on the ground after it is mowed. Wooden drying fences that stretch for hundreds of yards across the fields are built, and every night the hay is hung out to dry, like the family wash. The sun helps along in the daytime, but it is only a half hearted help, and in the neighborhood of Bergen, where it is said to rain 364 days out of the year, the hay is almost always "on the fence." In the lake districts, where the hilly country makes means of transportation very difficult, a heavy copper wire is stretched from the top of a mountain to the village in the valley below. Down this huge masses of hay are sent sailing through the air, sometimes whizzing dangerously near the unwary tourist's head. — New York Tribune.

Yes, We Are Restless.

"We are a restless people," observes the Sedgwick (Kan.) Pantagraph, "Every thin woman longs to be fat. Every fat woman wants to grow thin. Every town man longs for the time when he can retire to the quiet of the country, and every farmer hopes to some day quit work and move to town, where he can take life easy. Country newspaper men would like to try their hand on a city daily. The fellows on the big dailies dream of a time when they can own a paper of their own. In youth we long for maturity. In age we yearn for the happy days of childhood. There is no excuse for it other than that we all seem to be built that way. The grass seems to be just a little bit greener and thriftier most any direction from the place you occupy right now. Contentment is as near to happiness as you can get in this world."

Boy Was a Good Listener.

The Smiths were not overcautious in discussing neighbors' faults in the presence of their little son. A van one day backed up to the curb, and, much to Mrs. Smith's disgust, her boy Tommy assisted an objectionable neighbor to move. The little fellow worked hard and made himself very useful. When the last wagonload had been hauled away and the doors of the vacant house locked Tommy returned home, tired and disgusted. His mother could not reconcile the boy's early enthusiasm with his present dejection, and she asked him what was the matter.
"I worked and watched around the house all day," whined the tired little fellow, "but I didn't see them take any skeletons out of the closets."—New York Times.

Feminine Study of Man.

Man is when all is said a vastly lovable being and even his faults—indeed, chiefly his faults—have a most unholy attraction for us. But man the conquered is a very different creature from man the conqueror. The first is always ready and longing to afford us everything in the world we desire—ready to sell his immortal soul for our pleasures. The second grudges us a kind word.—A Spinster in M. A. P.

Conkling's Invective.

Roscoe Conkling, like John J. Ingalls, was a master at invective. Conkling, it is said, once upon a time in summing up to a jury thus attempted to belittle the testimony of a rummy faced, knobby nosed witness for the opposition: "Methinks, gentlemen, I can see that witness now, his mouth stretching across the wide desolation of his face, a sepulcher of rum and a fountain of falsehood!"

Two of a Kind.

A man waiting for a street car asked a gentleman standing by, "It are time for the street car, ain't it, or have any one went out in the last few minutes?" The answer is said to have been, "If any have went I haven't saw it."—Greensboro (N. C.) Record.

Beats The Music Cure.

"To keep the body in tune," writes Mrs. Mary Brown, 20 Lafayette Place, Poughkeepsie, N. Y, "I take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are the most reliable and pleasant laxative I have found." Best for the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater and Sons' druggists, 25c.

Try a little KODAL FOR DYSPEPSIA after your meals. Many stomachs are overworked to the point where they refuse to go further. Kodol digests your food and gives your stomach the rest it needs, while its reconstructive properties get the stomach back into working order. Kodol relieves flatulence, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, belching, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"

PRAISE FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, I became regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day.
"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of an organ, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.
No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.
For 25 years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.
